

Occupational Health in Building Services Survey

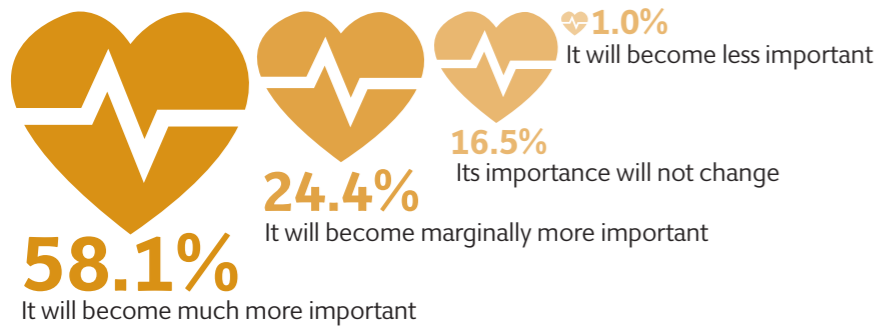

Do you actively manage occupational health at work?

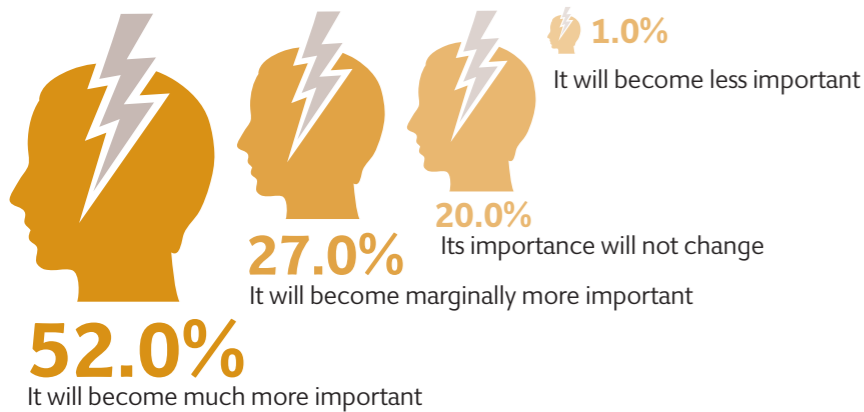

Does your firm carry out any employee occupational health surveillance?

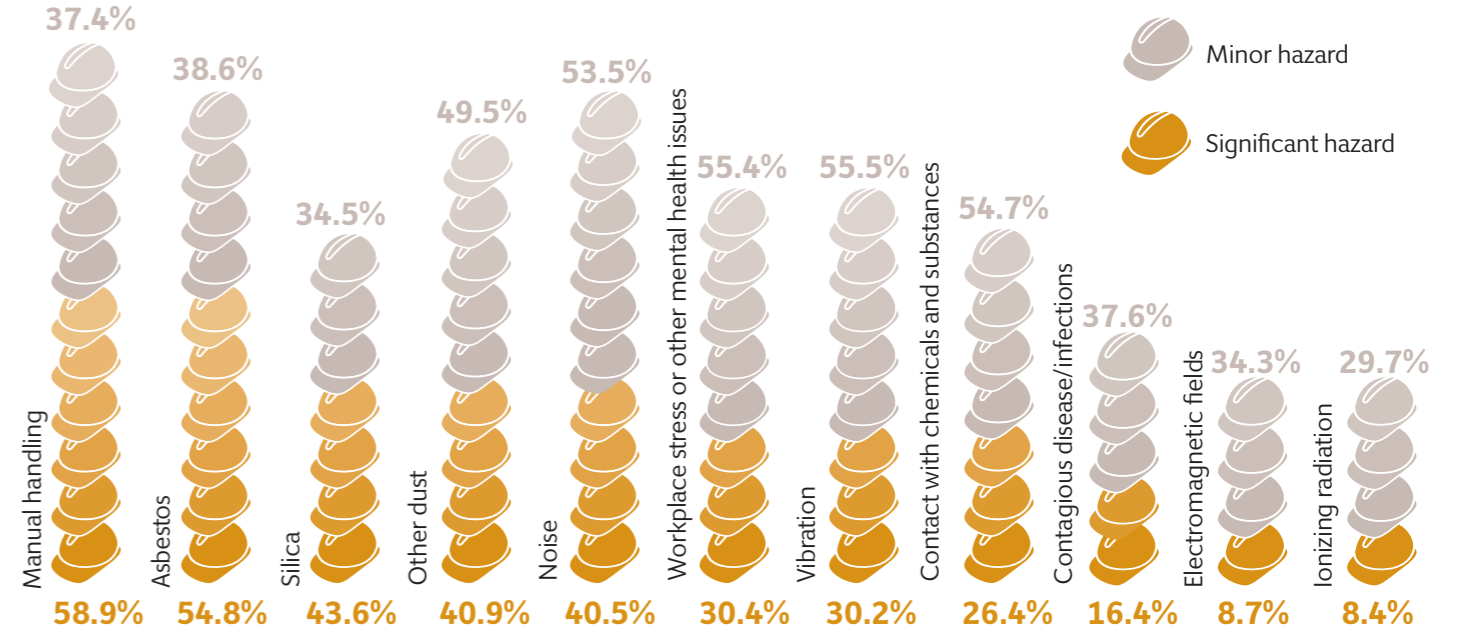

What is your view on the future importance of occupational health to your business (in the next five to 10 years)?

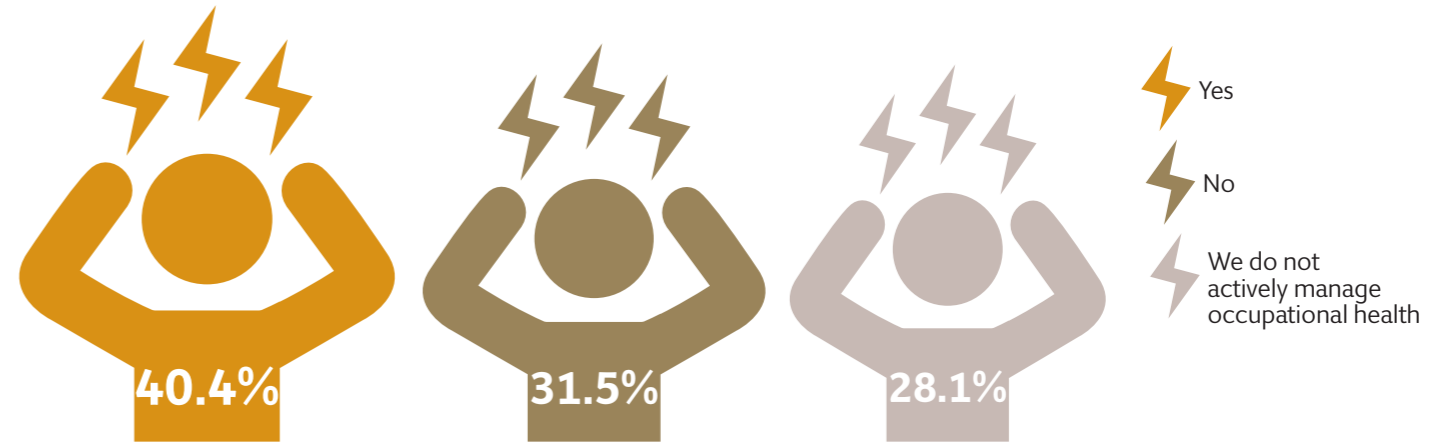

What is your view on the future importance of occupational stress to your business (in the next five to 10 years)?

Which of the following are occupational health hazards to on-site employees in your company?

Does your firm include managing occupational stress in its approach to active occupational health management?

What are your company's reasons for managing occupational health?

